Every key break around General Luna on one page: skill level, the tide it wants, and how you get there. Beginners belong at Jacking Horse and Daku; Cloud 9, Tuason, Quiksilver, Rock Island and Pacifico are advanced waves whatever the rental shop tells you.

Tide rules to memorise

- ☐ Default: mid-to-high tide on the General Luna reefs
- ☐ Cemetery is best around low tide (the reverse of most spots)
- ☐ Stimpy's prefers low-to-mid; Rock Island peaks at mid
- ☐ Tuason Point works at high tide only
- ☐ Jacking Horse handles anything except dead low

Boats and costs (2026)

- The boat spots run from the launch at the end of Tourism Road, past Cloud 9.
- Stimpy's and Rock Island are about ₱250 per person return with a two-person minimum; Cemetery about ₱150 per person; a Daku run about ₱1,500 per boat.
- Agree the price before you load the boards. Prices are informally consistent, not officially fixed.

Honest note: Prices are informally consistent, not fixed, as of 2026; agree before you load the boards. Every break here is over coral, so carry reef booties, and treat Cloud 9, Tuason, Quiksilver, Rock Island and Pacifico as advanced waves whatever a listing says.
